New Business

- Fuzzy Shimada Tournament entries are out. Booklet concept for advertisers Brandon to investigate. Need to find a non-profit organization to donate money to in the future. Need to decide if selling towels again and change logo. Average re-rate rule to be clarified on website
- Federation Report: Mark Yoshinaka, new President website updates, database password protected, event listing, timeline for bowler data forwarded to NCNBF in time for inclusion in database. Bowler info two weeks after leagues have started for input into database. Changes to the bylaws. Stockton will no longer hold a tournament in foreseeable future. Fremont tournament has moved to Mission Lanes may need to decide if will exist after next year. Fed discussed running their own tournament to help make them self-sufficient. Next NCNBF meeting December 5th at 4th Street Bowl

Old Business

- Reword of constitution on High game, high series fund. Minor tweak add qualification about paying out for that season. Will bring back to board with final version.
- Scripps for new season, suggested purchasing from different vendors to spread the wealth. Vince will look into list of merchants.

- Donations from Fuzzy tournament will go to Yu-Ai-Kai and junior program.
- Spirit award winners, limit complementary dinners at the banquet to 2 per recipient. Discussion on limiting comp dinners to only those for current year and how many actual recipients per year and if they need to be male and female. Will flush out details for next meeting
- Lindsey suggested using a generic email address and mailing address for tournament correspondence, will look into costs and options.
