Motion by Naomi, Seconded by Dale

Nisei Juniors

Youth participation doubled from last year have 45 kids, have several bowlers from Santa Cruz and several from free youth clinic. Will split league into two full 13 week leagues, Fall and Spring League. Good bake sale at Fuzzy and Senior, raised over $700. Yosh says they will continue to do bake sale at other house tournaments to help pay for tournaments.

Old Business

- Fuzzy Shimada Tournament – Good turnout, smooth event. Results and letter final. Photos posted on Facebook. Over $1000 raised for Japan Relief. Frank presented preliminary financial results.
- Senior No-Tap very high scoring event. Good money tree Congrats to Susan Tanisawa and Byron Ishizu for winning.
- Senior League is doing well, looking for sub bowlers to help fill in

New Business

- Reps provided bowler count for scrips for Ham and Turkey shoot. Total 256 bowlers in our leagues, ratio of 1 to 8 will be given out. Vince will purchase from local restaurants and pass out at next meeting.
- Jayvee Suligan shot first 300 in Weds night league. Lindsey Wong shot 299 and 807 on Thursday night.
- Dale reported that Ruthie Shimada passed away.
- Senior Team No-Tap event scheduled for April 21, 2012 and considering running only 2 squads because there was little interest in 3rd squad.
- JANBA Vince talked to Jeff about Denver and hotel accommodations. Flights from SJ to Denver start checking. There was a proposal from Storm Bowling Products to be the primary sponsor of the event.

Next meeting:

Monday, November 14, 2011 at 7:00pm 4th Street Bowl
