Senior No-Tap Tournament

Results are final, thanks to all those who came to help run the event. Everything ran smoothly. Marc will send thank you to Tom for bananas.

Fuzzy Shimada Tournament (Nov. 11-12, 2006)

Stefanie, reports current entry numbers - 19 Mens teams, 6 Womens teams, Squad 1-12 entries, Squad 2-19 entries, Squad 3-19 entries. We will still accept entries until 1 week before. Entries low, but will continue with event. Advise league reps to market tournament to bowlers to look for any additional entries that have fallen through the cracks. Survey bowlers on why they didn't bowl. We will look at revamping for next year. Consider developing committee to revamp.

JANBA News

Entry form is out for Utah. Still waiting on minutes and agenda from Janba Board. Still on the table: changing PBA member rule.

Old Business

- Marc changed constitution to update with USBC and newly approved amendment to allow 25% of bowlers in league to be Non-Nisei. Board and reps asked by Marc to read and review for next meeting. Please make sure we are true to following our constitution.
- NCNBF expulsion update:
 - NCNBF wants us back, Greg Gong, current President of Federation who said that the letter was not supposed to be an expulsion letter.
 - Letter back from NCNBF said the following:
 - They offered card for 2006-2007 season at $1.50 for only the bowlers wanting a card.
 - Bowlers not wanting to purchase yet must buy an unattached card at a tournament site if they wish to bowl.
 - Advise Non-Nikkei bowlers to continue to buy a card.
 - After much discussion, board voted: Should we continue to ask for reinstatement? Vote taken and unanimous NO vote.
- Website development - Lindsey did register our domain name of SJNBA.com to save the name. Development will still continue.

New Business

- A. Congrats to Michele Shimada, shot 780 and a 278, Tuesdays at Oakridge. Karen Jeung 278 at Moonlite.
- B. Turkey and Ham Shoot, thanks to Sayo for getting scrips. The scrips are distributed to leagues. Marc will write letter to Santo Market and Shiedo Manjo for next meeting. Leagues will decide on how to use scrips and when to give away.
