Motion by Ken, Seconded by Vince.

Nisei Juniors

- City Tournament at Mission Lanes. Results are in, one team finished 2nd and female bowler finished 1st in singles. Bake sales were good earned $400 over the year.

Old Business

- Association Banquet held on May 31. Good turnout had 184 people attend. Food and service was very good, ice cream to the kids nice touch. Yosh would like Brandon to write letter saying how pleased we were with this year. Next year will be May 30, 2015. Leo Yee was very honored to be remembered and recognized by the association.

New Business

- Senior National No-Tap, 44 teams and 102 double entries a little down from last year. Put together goodie bags on Wednesday. Friday night mixer with Sushi Coast providing the food.
- Fuzzy Shimada Tournament discussed schedule and entry form. Decided Saturday will be Doubles 10am, Trios 12noon, Team 3:45pm and doubles 6:45pm. Sunday Trios 10am, Doubles 12:30pm and Trios 3pm. To be held October 4-5, 2014. Also discussed average requirements and what will use. Discussed donation from raffle to Tony Reyes Memorial Fund, will be $1000. We will still donate money to JamSJ as long as 4th Street will participate.

- Discussed closure of JANBA account now that we are not part of JANBA. Felt it was best to leave account structure as is and not touch money until necessary.

Action Items:

Brandon write letter to Three Flames about food and service that were good.

Next meeting:

Monday, Sept. 8, 2014 at 7:00pm 4th Street Bowl

Motion to adjourn by Vince seconded by everyone!
