Old Business

Senior No-Tap ran well. Scores were lower in the 1st squad and much higher for the 2nd squad. Prize fund checks are being worked on.

Fuzzy Shimada tournament turnout was better than expected. First 2 squads sold out on Saturday and the two Sunday squads were well-attended. Scores followed the trend of the no-tap. Dylan Sager had the only honor score of the tournament (300).

Ham/Turkey Shoot scrips were distributed to the leagues. Discusses possibly raising the scrip amount from $15 to $20.

New Business

Koden check sent to Yamada family.

Frank Lum has requested that we look for a new Treasurer. His daughter is moving out of the Bay Area and other than no-tap tournaments there's no longer a reason to make the trips to San Jose.

Mark raised the possibility of having to make changes to the constitution due to issues with California Bank & Trust. Discussion tabled to next meeting.

Action Items:

Look for Vice-President and Treasurer.
